

YOUTH ON THE ROCK

RULES OF CONDUCT AND ENCOURAGEMENT

Please read the following rules of conduct and encouragement and sign below:

1. I will remain with the group at all times during Bible studies, activities and outings.
2. If I need to leave the group for any reason, during Bible studies, activities or outings, I will obtain permission from an Adult Youth Leader.
3. I will show respect to all Adult Youth Leaders.
4. I will not be disruptive (talking during studies, curse or use foul language, cell phone's, walkman's etc.) at Bible studies, youth activities or during Sunday Service. Youth are encouraged to sit with their families during any other services or church-wide events.
5. I will participate and be respectful during worship and prayer time.
6. I will treat all youth with respect.
7. I will not create or be a part of a clique of youth that excludes anyone.

Failure to comply with the above rules will result in the need for parent, youth, and adult youth leadership meeting, and suspension from future studies, activities and outings.

In order to attend future studies, activities and outings, the youth and parent/guardian, and adult youth leadership, must meet again and have the youth share why he/she would like to continue to attend youth group by way of a letter, which will be discussed in the meeting.

These rules of conduct and consequences are purely for the building up and edification of Godly character within our youth and to encourage Godliness and respectful love for our Father God through Jesus Christ, and for the respect and courtesy of these youth who do want to enjoy hearing God's Word and the fellowship of the youth group.

The above rules of conduct and consequences have been agreed upon and have even been requested by the peers of the youth group, our youth leadership, and our adult youth leadership.

WE HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE RULES OF CONDUCT AND CONSEQUENCES FOR MISCONDUCT AT YOUTH GROUP STUDIES, ACTIVITIES, GROUP OUTINGS AND SUNDAY MORNING SERVICE AND AGREE TO RESPECTFULLY ABIDE BY THEM.

Galatians 5:16 ... abide in the Spirit and you shall not fulfill the evil desires of the flesh.

Matthew 22:37 ... You shall love the Lord your God with all you heart, all your soul, and all your mind.
